

ND Talent Search Tutoring Resource Guide

Organization	Format	What's offered/How to connect
Brainfuse	Virtual	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • St. Joseph County Public Library Card required • Live tutoring for homework help, skills building and test preparation; available 2:00pm – 11:00pm (EST) each day. • Submit papers, resumes, or math/science questions for feedback through the Writing Lab and 24/7 Center. • ACT, GED, SAT, and college readiness lessons and practice tests.
IUSB Student Success Corp	Virtual & In-Person	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tutoring in a variety of subjects, online & in-person • Students need to register for tutoring. Parents can click here to Register for virtual tutoring. • For in-person tutoring at IUSB, call or email Ginny Heidemann, vmheidem@iusb.edu, 574-520-4823.
Learn to Be (Coming Soon!)	Online	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Connection to exceptional tutors online for free. • Integration of K-12 material into sessions to provide live, interactive problems to solve in math, reading, writing and more.
UPchieve	Online	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Get personalized 1-on-1 support from live coaches, 24/7 • Chat with UPchieve-certified tutors in under 5 minutes, when you need them. Completely free! • Get help in most subjects ranging from Math, Science, Reading and Writing, College Applications, and SAT & ACT Prep. • Students create an account directly w/UPchieve.
AskRose	Call, email, screenshare, or chat online	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Math/Science assistance • AskRose tutors help students understand their homework, arrive at answers themselves, and prepare to tackle similar questions on their own.

